Comments From the Authors

篠崎 一夜 SHINOZAKI HITOYO

Thank you very much for ordering this special booklet during the "No Money" OVA campaign. Also, I truly thank the publishing staff for giving me this project. I was very happy when Kousaka-san became the illustrator for "No Money" during its debut as a magazine novel. When it was made into a manga, I was even happier. Then it started into drama CDs and this year, it appears as an OVA with a fresh start. It's all thanks to everybody's support. The people from the publishing house, all the terrific seiyuu who participated, the director and production team, everybody who helped out, and to you readers, who have supported us. I am truly grateful. Thank you for all the letters and surveys. I've read them all and they are my fuel. I will continue writing the story carefully from now on. Please continue with your support.

香坂 透 KOUSAKA TOORU

Thank you for ordering the "No Money" booklet! I'll be very glad if you enjoyed it. I never thought that it would be made into an OVA. To all the people who created this opportunity, thank you very much. I know it must be hard for the graphic designers to work with my unstable drawings, but they've done such a good job which made me very happy. Also, I've been assigned to design and draw the goods for in the limited edition box and the cover. Everybody from the publisher, director, all the seiyuu and all the people who've contributed, thank you very much for all your help and effort. Nevertheless, all the people who sent in letters and surveys, this is all because of your support. Thank you very much. Please continue to give us your feedback and requests from now on as well.
